SIR,

I beg leave, through the medium of your paper, to apprise his Majesty's ministers and the legislature of the British Empire, that I have matured an invention to facilitate the progress of knowledge, and otherwise largely to benefit the public; but this invention being also calculated to give an unrestrainable liberty to the press, I wish to be informed if his Majesty's government have any objection to its introduction. I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

R. WEDGEWOOD.

N.B. This letter is to every Editor of periodical works who may chance to read it, and who feeling an interest in the progress of science, will oblige by inserting it.
